

KIN Global convenes a diverse group of world leaders to continue the path toward global prosperity. KIN Global is not simply a conference, but part of a larger vision, of a responsibility of great institutions to provide an independent platform for people to collaborate and address humanity's most meaningful challenges.

The Kellogg Innovation Network and KIN Global 2010 proudly present a unique concert experience.

ETUDES FOR INNOVATION 2010

TUESDAY, MAY 18TH
7:30PM PICK-STAIGER CONCERT HALL
NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

Please join us for the musical portion of the KIN Global 2010 Conference with an unusual and inspiring 90-minute program exploring the innovative visions and contributions of diverse artists and social trailblazers including:

THE N.U. BIENEN SCHOOL CHORALE

Performing works by Ives, Gaburo and Witacre/e.e.cummings.

MANHATTAN TRANSFER

Internationally renowned, multiple Grammy Award winners for innovative work in jazz and vocalese.

ROBERT DICK

Celebrated global flutist and inventor of new flute technologies and repertoire.

DREAMS FOR KIDS

One of the most innovative, effective and fastest growing youth-to-youth mentoring programs.

JEFFREY ERNSTOFF

KIN creative director, multi-instrumentalist and writer.

TICKET INFORMATION:

Student/Faculty/Staff: $10 Alumni: $20 General: $30
For tickets please visit: <http://tinyurl.com/ye3vdub>
For questions, contact Shaina Morphey at:
smorphey2010@kellogg.northwestern.edu

Hosted by:
ROBERT C. WOLCOTT, PH.D.
Executive Director
Kellogg Innovation Network

Made possible by generous support from:

