Tom Tuohy is an attorney, author, professor, CEO of CBA, LLC, and founder of Tuohy Law Offices and Dreams for Kids, Inc.

Tom has provided over 4,000 Illinois Living Trust estate plans for families and has worked with hundreds of small businesses with Tuohy Law Offices. He founded the social enterprise Comprehensive Benefits Plan of America, LLC (CBA) in 2016 to help improve Americans' financial wellness.

The son of a single parent, Tom founded the nonprofit Dreams for Kids, Inc. in 1989, to provide essential workplace development skills, instill an entrepreneurial mindset, and inspire youth to become socially engaged. Having served over 100,000 youths, in 2022 the organization expanded and is now the flagship organization of GCE Lab School. With Chicago as their classroom, students apply real-world learning experiences to build enterprises that impact their communities and respond to the world's greatest challenges.

In 2015, Tom was selected as a member of the Nation's Top
One Percent by the National Association of Distinguished Counsel. He was also awarded the Prestigious Highest Rating
(AV) for Legal Skill and Competence for 20 consecutive years and was sworn in to the U.S. Supreme Court Bar in 1990. He served as Special Assistant Attorney General of Illinois and founded Tuohy Law Offices in 1982.

In 2011, Stanford Graduate School of Business awarded Tom a Fellowship to study and share best practices on social innovation with 46 corporate and nonprofit leaders from 14 countries. He is a graduate of DePaul University, DePaul Law School, and Kellogg School of Business at Northwestern. Tom teaches Social Enterprise at DePaul's Kellstadt Graduate School of Business.

Tom has shared his work and message of personal transformation, leadership, and social impact with tens of thousands of people throughout his diverse career. His audiences include business organizations, labor unions, student groups, and educators. Topics include social entrepreneurship, volunteerism, social activism, estate, and legacy planning.
